How to use this planner

Tap to move around. The tabs on the right open the year overview, each month and your notes. On every page the line at the top shows where you are; tap any part of it to go up a level. The arrows at the top right go to the previous or next page of the same kind.

What links where. Year overview: tap a month name for its month page, or a day for its daily page. Month page: tap a date for that day, or the week label on the left for that week. Weekly page: tap a day heading for its daily page. Daily page: tap the week or month at the top.

Free sample. This file holds January 2027 so you can try the links and the page shape on your own tablet. The full planner runs from October 2026 to December 2027 (588 pages), Monday or Sunday start: varsdigital.app/p/2027-planner-for-kindle-scribe-colorsoft/

Pages included. Year overview, 2027 goals, then for January 2027: a month calendar and a habit tracker; one page per week; one page per day with an hourly schedule from 6 am to 9 pm, a top 3, a to do list and notes; and 30 note pages (20 lined, 10 dot grid) with an index.

Getting it onto your tablet. This is a standard PDF with internal links. Copy it to your device the way your device maker describes for PDF files (a USB cable, the maker's desktop or phone app, or its send to device service), then open it in the notebook or PDF app that lets you write on PDFs. Links work in apps that support PDF links; writing works in apps that let you write on PDFs.

Page shape. Every page is 3:4 portrait (6 by 8 inches), the same shape as the screens of most 10 to 13 inch e-ink notebooks and the 12.9 and 13 inch iPad Pro, so pages fill the screen on those devices. On other tablets the page shows with thin bars.

Colour. Blue marks the tabs and column headings, amber marks Saturdays and Sundays, and green marks the heading lines. All text is black. Shown in greyscale, the colours become light and middle greys behind the black text.

Tip. Keep the original PDF as a blank backup copy before you start writing.
